

The Pledge of the 2017 Orientation Activities

We, _____ (name of society) pledge to be a responsible organizer of the 2017 orientation activities. We are committed to promote and protect the well-being of students participating in our activities.

In particular, we promise that we will:

1. RESPECT the participants as well as other people when conducting our activities on-campus or off-campus;
2. NOT incur any DISREPUTE of the name of our society and the University;
3. NOT allow to use of BAD or FOUL LANGUAGE in our publicity or program materials and during the activities;
4. NOT allow any SEXUAL HARASSMENT in our activities, and REPORT any sexual harassment behavior to the University immediately;
5. AVOID DRINKING activity which is unhealthy, and NOT allow drinking by any persons under 18 years old;
6. OBSERVE the RULES AND REGULATIONS when using any facilities and equipment on-campus or off-campus; and,
7. Take CAUTION about SAFETY AND ENVIRONMENTAL PROTECTION regarding facilities and equipment,
8. REPORT any unsafe conditions to the relevant office/body, and NOT cause any RISKS, DAMAGES, or INJURIES.

We also take note of the following information:

1. Alumni and outsiders are not covered by the University's insurance for students and staff. Organizers are encouraged to arrange for these participants in their activities, if any.
2. Organizers may seek advice and assistance from relevant staff of the University offices when needed.
